

STEP

1

Build your team

First, gather a number of people and build a design team. It is good to include community people, the management staff of the Health Facility, and people who might be involved with managing the Maternity Waiting House in the future.

