

STEP 6

Budget adjustment and construction

Once the layout and façade designs are finalized, get estimates from builders, adjust your construction budget and start planning construction. Hire locally as much as possible for bricklaying and painting.

Once the construction of the Maternity Waiting House is complete, get the community people to take part in painting the façade by organizing a workshop. Organize an opening ceremony and promote the new facility extensively in the area.